Motion To Extend Time to file Motion for Rehearing

Petitioner, Bradley Jacobs Shumway, moves for an extension of time to file his Motion for Rehearing:

I.

This is an appeal from the 435th District Court of Montgomery County in which the Court of Criminal Appeals granted discretionary review on July 1, 2020. Oral Arguments were presented on November 18, 2020. The Court of Criminal Appeals issued its Opinion on February 2, 2022. Movant's Motion for Rehearing is due February 17, 2022. Movant seeks an extension of time so that he may file his Motion timely. This is the first request for extension and no previous extensions have been granted.

II.

An extension is needed for the following reasons:

1. Communication and correspondence with Movant in TDCIJ and his out of state family has been slow.
2. Counsel was just retained yesterday February 15, 2022.
3. Counsel needs additional time to research and prepare a Motion for Rehearing.

Movant respectfully asks that the Court to grant his Motion to Extend Time to File his Motion for Rehearing and grant Movant an additional 30 days.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Richard Martin P. Canlas
